

Charles E. Kreamer Is claimed by Death

PROMINENT CITIZEN AND CHURCHMAN DIES SUDDEN-LY OF HEART FAILURE

Charles Edward Kreamer, prominent in so many circles in Narberth and Philadelphia, died suddenly Friday morning, Jan. 13th. He was on the way to the 10:47 train, when he fell on Haverford Ave., opposite the station, and within a few minutes, his physician, Dr. R. C. Hoffman, pronounced life extinct. Heart disease was the cause of death.

Mr. Kreamer moved to Narberth 33 years ago, and has assisted in the development of most of its organizations. He was the ninth resident of the village of Narberth at its inception, and was a member of the Committee of five who secured the charter for the Borough in 1894.

Though a life-long Methodist, the Presbyterian Church of Narberth was organized in Mr. Kreamer's home on June 2, 1891, and he became its first treasurer. With the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Narberth, his activities soon centered there. He became a member of the building committee, and because of his training and ability, at once achieved a leading part, and served for 27 years as trustee, of which Board he was also President. 25 years as active Superintendent of the Sunday School, and the last two years as Superintendent Emeritus.

Mr. Kreamer was born in Philadelphia, July 17, 1849, and never separated himself from the life of his native city. He was a trustee of the

Narberth Choral Society

At the regular weekly rehearsal of the Narberth Choral Society in the Y. M. C. A. Building last Monday night, the music for the next concert was given out. After going over each number and hearing the instructions by Prof. Nice, every one was impressed with the fact that there is some real work ahead.

The program will again be of a miscellaneous character and will include choruses from the best operas and the great overtures. One number which will be especially pleasing is the Ballad of "The Highwaymen," the first performance of which was given by the Montclair Choral Society, one of the best choruses in the country. The text of this ballad is from the poems by Alfred Noyes and was set to music by Mark Andrews.

Everyone who has heard any of the concerts put on by Prof. Nice knows that one of his strong points is his ability to select a well-balanced program. His reputation will not suffer in the least by the selections he has made for the next concert to be given by the Narberth Choral.

The new officers have already proven that they are the right people in the right places and they are planning some great things for the society.

Announcement of the soloists for the next concert will be made in a short time.

Home and School in Regular Meeting

ASSOCIATION DISCUSSES SCHOOL
ATHLETICS—MEETING NIGHT
CHANGED TO FOURTH
THURSDAY

The Home and School Association meeting on Thursday of last week, was held in the High School Auditorium. There were upwards of one hundred persons present, including practically the entire faculty of the Public School of the Borough, for whom an informal reception was given, as a part of the evening's program.

A discussion on the general subject of the physical development of school children was entered into. This was led by Mr. Carl A. Hummel, in charge of Boys' Athletics, of the Division of Physical Education, of the Public Schools of Philadelphia, who gave an interesting and instructive talk on the great importance of the effect the health of the school children will have on the character of work they do in the class room. He dwelt particularly on the value of having children form hygienic habits in the home to supplement the training given them in the schools. Proper organization of sports, as well as the kind of games best suited to children, was considered, and during the general discussion following his talk he strongly urged for Narberth the substitution of soccer football for the regulation football games as conducted by the college and university teams.

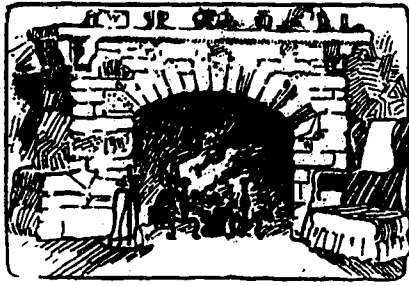

Mr. Hummel spoke of the value of recreation centres, which was later taken up by President Wentz, who urged every member of the Home and School Association to do his or her utmost to have every voter in the Borough go to the polls on February 6th and authorize the Borough Council, by a unanimous vote, to procure the property for the recreation centre for Narberth. He explained that as the majority of the residents of the Borough had expressed themselves in favor of the playground, the special election was simply to correct an error for which the Borough authorities were in nowise responsible, and that a unanimous vote at this time would show the real Narberth community spirit.

Owing to the fact that the stated meetings of the Home and School Associations conflicted with stated meetings of other organizations of the Borough, the By-Laws were amended by designating the fourth Thursday of each month as the regular meeting night hereafter. From a thorough canvass of the Borough, it was found that this night was one of the very few in each month on which there is no

Narberth is Shocked by Double Tragedy

WOMAN IS SHOT DOWN BY HUSBAND FROM WHOM SHE SEPARATED, WHO THEN KILLS SELF

Enraged by her refusal to return and live with him, Dennis Butler, of 1330 North 55th Street, killed his wife and committed suicide on Monday.

Mrs. Butler, known in Narberth under her maiden name of Margaret Tierney, was met at the station as she left the 7:02 train by her husband. He accompanied her as far as 320 Dudley Avenue, where, his entreaties being of no avail, he drew a revolver and shot her down in the middle of the street. He then ended his own life by a bullet in the brain.

The couple had been secretly married last June. They had lived together for three months at 4612 Brown Street, and, after the separation, Mrs. Butler returned to Narberth and lived with her brother and father at 519 Dudley avenue. She was thirty-one.

The dying woman was carried into the home of Charles Herndon, at 310 Dudley Avenue, and Dr. Romain C. Hoffman was summoned. Realizing that she was beyond medical attention, Dr. Hoffman summoned Rev. Richard Crowley, who administered the last rites of the Catholic Church as the woman died.

Butler's body was taken in charge by the Ardmore police. A note in his pocket showed that the act was premeditated.

According to available information, this is the first murder in the history of the Borough of Narberth.

American Legion Notes

The regular monthly meeting of the Harold D. Speakman, Post 356, will be held on Monday evening, January 23rd, Elm Hall, 8 P. M.

Col. J. Price Jackson, of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, will address us on his experience with the labor situation and why ex-service men should receive adjusted compensation.

If you want to attend a live meeting, come out and get acquainted with your buddies. Several will be initiated and the new officers will be installed.

NARBERTH WOMEN ATTEND ROUND TABLE LUNCHEON

Seven representatives of the Narberth League of Women Voters attended the Round Table Luncheon held at the Bellevue Stratford on Wednesday, January 16th.

The speakers were Messrs. Albert Johnson and W. W. Husband, who spoke on Immigration problems. The Narberth representatives were, Mrs. Ward Pierson, Mrs. Edgar Cockrill, Mrs. W. J. Mulholland, Mrs. Carroll Downes, Mrs. W. Downes, Miss Downes and Mrs. C. P. Fowler.

It is all very good, for a man to be able to speak five or six different languages, providing he knows what he is talking about.

An Opportunity For Everybody

"OBEY THAT IMPULSE" ON JANUARY 27 AND DO WHAT YOU CAN TO HELP THE VISITING NURSE SERVICE

Folks of Narberth, may we have your attention for a moment?

How often have you said to yourself: "If I knew just how to go about it—if I felt certain that my contribution, modest though it is, would reach the folks most genuinely in need of assistance, I would gladly give what I can to help make life a little easier, a little more comfortable, a little more enjoyable."

And then you have hesitated. Other things have crowded in on your mind and before you realized it the impulse was gone. Many times since then the incident has come back to you and each time you have thought of it, you have felt kind of provoked at yourself, and wished that you might have known just how to go about doing the good turn that you really wanted to do.

Well, folks, it's an old saying, but a true one, that nothing is to be gained by crying over spilt milk.

Community Club Notes

Mrs. George Bean, who is so well versed in national affairs, will address the Club on Tuesday. Mrs. Bean gave the Club a very instructive talk this fall on the vital points of the Limitation of Armament Conference. The talk next Tuesday will be the second of three addresses on Current Events to be given by Mrs. Bean this year. Those who have heard her frequently in the past, know how alive she can make a heavy subject. Her address on Tuesday will be too worth while to miss.

There will be music and the regular social hour.

WESTMINSTER CIRCLE

The January meeting of the Circle was held at Mrs. G. W. Michener's. Mrs. Nelson Rowley and Mrs. D. Warren Wright assisted Mrs. Michener in entertaining.

Mrs. Farmer gave an interesting report of the Committee's Xmas visit to the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. The children were delightfully entertained by the toys contributed by the Circle. Mrs. Farmer also reported on the visit to the Service Hospital for Convalescing Soldiers at 24th and Grays Ferry Road, Philadelphia. The boys very much appreciated the Xmas treat from the Circle.

The entertainment committee submitted plans for a play to be given by the Circle, the date to be announced later. Watch these columns for more details.

Twenty-nine members responded to roll call. Mrs. Wright brought a guest.

After the business meeting adjourned, the ladies were pleasantly entertained by the social and refreshment committees.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. K. Bauer, Iona Avenue and Anthwyn Road.

CHILDREN'S DANCING CLASS

Saturday, Jan. 21, at 2 P. M. Sharp, Y. M. C. A.

This Saturday is the last of the first quarter, all children who wish to enroll for the next quarter can do so at this time, in order that the committee can make definite arrangements.

If aesthetic dancing is desired by any pupils, special arrangements can be made, reserving the hour from 2 to 2.30 P. M. for this purpose.

Call Narberth 1638 M, and make arrangements.

SAFETY

The coasting on Essex Avenue during the past week was the finest found for some time, and a small army of sledding parties made use of it.

It is a source of gratification that Narberth can devote one street for recreation when the opportunity arises.

As for the delivery trucks which, it is said, break through the barricades to the danger of the coasters, one would think that business policy would dictate a more courteous regard for safety.

The temporary closing of one block is not too much of a tax on our hurried traffic. Parents should insist that the merchants who serve them, respect the safety of the children.

Communications

To the Editor of Our Town:

Of course it costs more to have the Borough employes go into the cellars and get the ashes, than to collect them from in front of our houses, or even from the side or back lawns. Also, it costs more to light our streets properly with electric lights than with old fashioned gas lights!

Porcelain bath tubs and running hot and cold water also cost more than the old time bucket-and-tin-pan method of maintaining bathing facilities.

Nobody wants to go back to street gas lamps or the age of the bucket-and-tin-pan bath room, and I can't believe that Narberth people want to save money—and it is very little that will be saved per person—at the expense of the good appearance of our town.

The before-the-war method of collecting ashes from the cellars was one of the several things that made Narberth one of the most attractive suburbs around Philadelphia.

Ash boxes and cans are very practical necessities, but they never have been things of beauty and they never will be. The less we see of them on the streets and lawns, the better.

I believe I voice the sentiments of a vast majority of the citizens of our Borough, when I say that our Council should appropriate enough money for ash collections to provide for the taking of ashes from our cellars. The extra expense that would be incurred by this method, over the present cost, ought to make but an infinitesimal difference in our tax bill, if it makes any difference at all. M. A. E.

CIVIC PRIDE vs. ICY PAVEMENTS

To the Editor of Our Town:

A week ago our town was visited with a pseudo-snow-blizzard. This storm at first started with rain, gradually turning into sleet and snow, accompanied with a violent gale; but, while having the affront of a real blizzard by the time the bread-winners were debarking their trains in the evening, it was well nigh to calm and clear by 9.45 P. M. A few of our home folks did very well to take on ambition enough that very evening to clear away from the pavements the snow and slush before freezing solid by the impending cold of the coming night.

Most of the pavements of our Borough are still covered with ice and snow too slippery and galled for the young, old and indifferent—indifferent because compelled to be. Consequently, our pedestrians' next best choice to safety from falling is to take to the streets, exposing themselves more or less unconsciously to being run down by the buzzing motor vehicles.

Moral: If the entire folk of our town had followed the precept of the industrious few at the opportune moment, just so would the entire Narberth have enjoyed the safety of cleared pavements, and in this particular civic pride would also have stood vindicated.

The writer believes it to be opportune that Borough Council take heed with a view to effecting some sort of remedy against similar recurrence of the above outlined conditions, even though a small fine should be necessary for each violation.

HAPPY ENDING

"I have just heard of a woman who went to a hotel unaccompanied and discovered that the acoustic properties of her room were such that every time she spoke aloud there was an echo. She then made a bold attempt to get in a last word, and in so doing talked herself to death."

Narberth League of Women Voters Hold January Meeting

That the interest in the League's programs is developing, was manifested by the increased attendance at the home of Mrs. W. G. Goodall, on Monday, Jan. 16.

Borough Government was the subject for discussion and was ably handled by Mrs. A. B. Ross.

The manner in which these meetings are being conducted tends to establish and maintain a keen interest, as members are assigned questions on which they are to inform themselves and come prepared to present such information at the meeting.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carroll Downes, Woodside Ave., on Monday, February 13th.

County Government will be discussed at this meeting. Every one welcome. Reserve this date. Dues are now payable for 1922, and it will be much appreciated if those members who have not as yet paid will remit the amount to Mrs. E. Cockrill, Treasurer, Forrest Ave.

An Opportunity for Everybody (Continued from Page 1)

No, don't waste either time or tears crying, but

FIX THIS DATE
IN YOUR MIND
JANUARY 27, 1922

That's the day set apart to raise money to maintain and enlarge the Visiting Nurse Service of the Main Line Citizens' Association. Here in Narberth, the committee in charge of the work, headed by Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites, is going to give a card party at the Y. M. C. A. Building. The tickets are one dollar each and may be obtained through Mrs. Stites.

This Visiting Nurse Service, we maintain, comes just about as near to being an agency through which genuine help is rendered when and where help is most needed, as any service of any kind, anywhere.

It's bad enough to have illness in the family at any time, but it's a whole lot worse when, for any reason, you can't have the nursing service that the physician prescribes and the patient needs.

Right here, the Main Line Citizens' Association steps into the scene, and says, "With the help of those of our citizens who can afford to contribute, even in a small way, the folks of our communities can and shall have home nursing service."

For several years this association has been making good on this promise. As the communities have increased in population, the nursing service has been extended. Today there is a bigger demand for nursing help right in the homes of our own and neighboring communities than there has been for years. The work must go on.

We believe every resident of Narberth wants this work to continue and expand to meet the needs of the people of the community. We know of no better way to substantiate that impulse than to buy at least one ticket for the card party, next Friday, January 27, and as many more as you can afford.

Remember what "Life" says, "Obey that impulse," and call Mrs. Stites on the phone—Narberth 372 W, and tell her you will take one, or two, or three, or as many tickets as you can afford. And don't forget this. It is nothing to anyone's discredit if you don't feel that you can spare a dollar right now. But if you WANT to help, send a contribution of any size to Mrs. Stites, and it will be appreciated, and proportionally, it will do just as much good as a check for $100. The thing that we remember about the Good Samaritan is not that he would like to have endowed a whole hospital but that he walked across the street and DID WHAT HE COULD!

HANNAH W. ODIORNE

Hannah W. Odiorne, widow of the late Walter C. Odiorne, aged eighty years, died January 5, 1922, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. S. Dugan, in Princeton, N. J. Interment was made in the Lutheran Cemetery at Ardmore, from the home of her son on Grayling Ave., Narberth.

Mrs. Odiorne was a member of one of Philadelphia's old families, and was a faithful worker in the Baptist Church, of which she was long a member.

Two surviving sons, Langdon C. Odiorne and Walter G. Odiorne, reside in Narberth.

THE FIRESIDE

Among Narberth's recent residents are Mr. and Mrs. Edw. G. Schmidheiser, who are residing at 319 Grayling Ave. Mrs. Schmidheiser was formerly Miss Martha Anderson, of Haverford, Pa.

Miss Dorothy M. Beatty, of 400 N. Narberth Ave., left on Tuesday to visit friends in Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Chicago, after which she expects to spend some months on the Pacific coast.

The Doctor Benjamin Rush Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet at the home of the Regent, Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, 108 Iona Avenue, Narberth, Pennsylvania, Saturday afternoon, January the twenty-first, at two thirty o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Loughlin gave a delightful dance at their home Friday evening, January 13th. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rowley, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. John Wetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Boileau, Mrs. Adelaide M. Crater and Mr. Fred Pruett.

Some of the later arrivals of new residents in our town include: Mr. N. A. Lockyer, of 162 Merion Ave.; Dr. G. I. Laing, who has taken apartments at 200 South Narberth Ave.; Mr. Henry E. Metius, who is occupying 408 Anthony Road; Mr. John B. Kerrigan, Grove Place; Mr. E. P. Jones, 428 Haverford Ave.; Mr. H. M. Dutcher, 318 Chestnut Ave.; Mr. George A. Bach, of Anthony Farms; Dr. Annie Taft, 209½ Chestnut Ave., and Mr. Rager Warner, Avon Apts.

A most delightful party was given on Wednesday evening, January 18th, at the home of Miss Mabel C. Marshall, of Price Ave. The guests included the Misses Viola Weber, and Mary E. Greiner, of Philadelphia, and the Misses Marion Knapp, Eleanor M. Reiss, Claire E. Crist, Helen S. Ashton, Evelyn Patten and Eleanor Ward, of Narberth; Messrs. Herbert A. Cooper and Walter Smaller, of Philadelphia; Ernest Purring, Jr., George A. Purring, Ellwood E. Reiss, C. Rupert Reger, Earle W. Marshall, Raymond L. Marshall, and Walton Foote, of Narberth.

Home and School in Regular Meeting

regularly scheduled meeting.

The Welfare Committee reported on the two subjects which had been referred to it, viz., the protection of school children crossing Haverford Avenue in the morning, and the general question of the lunch period.

Through the efforts of the Home and School Association, permission was secured from the Borough Council to assist in guarding children as they crossed Haverford Avenue on their way to school. The Boy Scouts volunteered to act as "watchmen" for a short period each morning, and the report of the Committee showed that they have already started on duty. To show its appreciation, the Association thereupon extended to the Scouts a unanimous vote of thanks.

The Welfare Committee will continue its study of the lunch-hour question. This is one which is of such magnitude that before any recommendation is made to the Board every phase of the subject will be taken into consideration. It is doubtful, however, whether a change will be made during the present school term. The Association will pursue the matter vigorously so as to be in a position to advise with the School Board and the faculty at the time plans for next season's work are made.

Mrs. Emil K. Roth entertained the members of the Association by rendering two vocal selections. Singing by the audience was conducted by Miss Speakman, who is the Musical Director of the Public Schools. Miss Fanny Loos presided at the piano.

Following the informal reception, which was tendered the members of the Faculty, refreshments were served by the pupils of the Domestic Science Class, under the direction of Miss Olsen. They were adorned in their regulation aprons and added a touch of realism to the occasion.

The meeting adjourned at 10 o'clock. The next meeting of the Association will be held on February 23rd.

Charles E. Kreamer is Claimed by Death

Methodist Episcopal Home for the Aged, Treasurer of the Commission on the Endowment of Old St. George's Methodist Episcopal Church, and for the last 16 years, treasurer of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital.

He was President of the Narberth Fire Company, and was one of the organizers at its incorporation in 1897. He was also President of the Board of Health, and manifested an active interest in both these bodies.

A large company of relatives and friends from Narberth, Philadelphia, and surrounding districts, attended the funeral services conducted at his late home, 114 Forrest Ave., Monday afternoon, Jan. 16th. The floral tributes were in keeping with one who loved flowers so well. His pastor, the Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Walls, officiated. By request, the solo, "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go," was sung by Miss Ruth E. Prescott. Addresses were made by the Rev. Frank M. Gray, a former pastor, the Rev. C. M. Boswell, representing the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, and by Dr. Walls. The Rev. Dr. G. Bickley Burns and the Rev. Dr. C. M. Straw, District Superintendents, and the Rev. Harry M. Chalfant, assisted.

The following served as honorary pallbearers: Messrs. Richard Freeman, J. W. Sparks, and Wm. Supplee, of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital; Mr. A. I. Wood, of the Methodist Episcopal Home for the Aged; Messrs. Frank H. Prescott and Edward L. Pedrick, of the Beth Raffen Methodist Episcopal Church, Narberth; Dr. C. T. Faries, of the Board of Health; Mr. Morris L. Orom, Mr. Markley Freed, of Emory, Freed & Co., his former firm; and Dr. Romaine C. Hoffman, his physician.

The active pallbearers, all members of the Narberth Fire Co., were Chief Chas. V. Noel, and Messrs. Raymond Weiss, C. Taylor Henry, John A. Miller, Morris Lacey, and Robert Muller.

The Shekinah Lodge, F. and A. M., of which he was a member, attended and participated. Interment was at Mt. Peace Cemetery, Philadelphia.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. S. Grace Kreamer (nee Miller), and his sister, Miss Mary Kreamer, of Merchantville, N. J., who with Church and Sunday School, and many organizations will mourn his loss.

Mr. Kreamer will be remembered as a high-minded, plain-spoken and consistent Christian gentleman, beloved of old and young, and respected and loved by his neighbors, irrespective of creed or political faith. He was well-read, wise in counsel, and possessed an unusual degree of executive ability. Always ready to defend his position when called upon to take a stand, he was nevertheless loyal to majorities, and willing to abide by the decision of his fellows and to work for the best interests of all concerned. He enjoyed life, revelled in the beauties of nature, loved his fellowmen, adored little children, but above all else, believed and trusted God.
